The screenshot displays the homepage of the Manuscript Peer-Review Process (MPRP) website. The header is dark red with the 'Manuscript Peer-Review Process' logo on the left and contact information on the right, including an email address and a support phone number. A navigation bar below the header contains links for 'About MPRP', 'Journals', 'Support and Training', 'Contact us', 'Track article status', 'Register', and 'Login'. The main content area has a light blue background and features the title 'Manuscript Peer-Review Process' in bold. Below the title, there is a paragraph describing the MPRP as a web-based portal accessible 24/7, offering editorial services like journal pre-publication, editorial workflow, and post-publication services. To the right of the text is a circular illustration showing a person at a desk with a laptop, surrounded by icons representing various aspects of the publishing process. Below the main text, there is a section titled 'Why MPRP?' which states that MPRP manages authors, reviewers, and editors' details and integrates with social and professional networks. At the bottom, a small line of text reads: 'If your research is ready to share with world, our submission portal will help you with a user-friendly platform to submit your'.
